CASE OF MRS BYENE AND DAVIS & SON.—HAVlog waited patiently for some days, and still more having borne the abuse of the differant journals pubinhed in this city is regard to the abuve case without any farther camenia-atom from his floore Mayor Wood, we sale this medium of publishing our defence to several metters in cameetion with the same, feeling assured that even paolic sympathy has been so far excited by the expants chatement made by Mrs Byrne, and echord in the daily journals would quilt all attempts at explanation; until every individual purson hat made their remarks. To men of basiness or manufacturers mance by rating the citedity and promonened at the City Hail and better his Honor Mayor Wood—for we would stake row as was stated for us them—that Mayor Wood may be well adapted to ferret out much auction, gaming house, and houses of it same, he certainly does not anow anything of the alart manufacturing bus-ness, or hen ever would have abused the pary who was then before him as regards the price of the work. We do not would stake row as was changed for the same amount of work of the same questly, the shirts herein spoken of were not made complete; the bosens, coilers, and wrists, being already made by other parties. To those who are laterected we would say, that the estimate made by several parties, of shirts made in the city of New York yearly, and that are only pash live to eight cents each shirt, or distribution of the contraction of the same described by all or as many as wish to; and that signalizing this case as a swinding transaction is false, and no further reason than that he is to account ing towns more than that his for the result of the contraction of the community at large ris said deposition of Mrs. Byrne wherein abe stated that she took the shirts and altered them and returned them came evening; thus we should and firmly deny; we say she altered the shirts, but inacted of the community at large ris said sposition of Mrs. Byrne wherein also stated that she took the shirts and done
